Press Release

New Chair for European Banking Industry Committee

The European Banking Industry Committee, the representative committee of the main European financial sector federations, has elected its new Chair Dr. Karl-Peter Schackmann-Fallis (Board member of the European Savings Banks Group/Executive Member of the Board of DSGV). He will thus succeed Mr. Giuseppe Zadra (Chairman of the Executive Committee of European Banking Federation/Director General of the Italian Banking Association). Vice-Chair of EBIC will be Mrs. Ariane Obolensky (Chief Executive of the French Banking Federation/Chair of the Executive Committee of the European Banking Federation).

The Secretariat will be run by the European Association of Cooperative Banks, with a view to rotating again after one year.

Founded in 2004, EBIC is committed to providing the common voice of the EU banking sector at large regarding EU financial legislation initiatives and banking practices and to maintaining an open and fruitful dialogue with the EU institutions and international bodies. EBIC is an advisory committee which is regularly called upon to provide expertise in the field of financial services.

The Committee is currently focusing on initiatives in the areas of prudential supervision and a number of topics in the retail banking area, such as the switching of current accounts. In the recent past, EBIC also produced several key positions for the banking industry relating to the financial services market integration process in a post-FSAP environment, Anti Money Laundering and others. These positions can be viewed on <http://www.eubic.org>.

For further information on EBIC, please contact the EBIC member organisations.
